1 Name of Guidelines [see Note 1]

These Guidelines are the Export Market Development Grants (Significant Net Benefit) Guidelines 2006.

2 Commencement [see Note 1]

These Guidelines commence on the day after they are registered.

3 Application of Guidelines

- (1) These Guidelines apply in relation to a grant application made under the Export Market Development Grants Act 1997 on or after 1 July 2007.
- (2) These Guidelines apply in relation to goods which are not made in Australia.

4 Significant net benefit

- (1) In determining, for paragraph 24 (b) of the Export Market Development Grants Act 1997, whether Australia will derive a significant net benefit, Austrade must comply with the following guidelines.
- (2) Austrade must consider whether:
 - (a) the business assets which are used in making the goods ready for sale (other than assets used in manufacture) are primarily or substantially based in Australia; and
 - (b) the activities (other than manufacture) which result in the goods being made ready for sale are primarily or substantially carried on in Australia; and
 - (c) a significant proportion of the value of the goods is added within Australia; and
 - (d) any sale of the goods generates, or is reasonably likely in the foreseeable future to generate, economic benefits for Australia, including in the area of employment, that are substantial relative to the amount of the grant claimed by the applicant.
- (3) Section 4, as in force immediately before 4 June 2010, is taken to apply to an application made in relation to a grant year commencing before 1 July 2009.
