

North Korea Sanctions update – Prohibition on luxury goods

The Government has now finalised the list of luxury goods. As of 22 December 2006 it is an offence to export any of these luxury goods items to North Korea.

For information on current UN sanctions please visit www.dfat.gov.au/un/unsc_sanctions/index.html.

To discuss this issue further, please contact Hian Yap, Manager, North East Asia International Liaison Unit, Austrade.

Australian Luxury Goods List

1	Wine
2	Spirits (all kinds)
3	Tobacco Products
4	Caviar
5	Crustaceans (all), eg rock lobsters
6	Abalone
7	Molluscs and aquatic invertebrates, eg oyster in any form
8	Automobiles and other vehicles to transport people
9	Yachts and pleasure craft
10	Perfumes and toilet waters
11	Cosmetics (all)
12	Furs
13	Silver
14	Gold
15	Jewellery
16	Precious and Semi Precious Stones (including diamonds and pearls)
17	Drinking glasses (lead crystal)
18	Works of Art (all)
19	Fountain Pens
20	Watches & Clocks
21	Carpets
22	Precious Metals
23	Leather travel goods, apparel and clothing accessories
24	Consumer Electronics (televisions, videos, DVD players, PDAs, laptops, MP3 players - and any other relevant exports)
25	Photographic equipment
26	Electronic entertainment / software
27	Sports Equipment