

Globalised Me

Meet Kelly, the global citizen. Colour the picture and answer the questions below.

What is Kelly's destination? _____ Why is she travelling? _____

Name two communications technologies Kelly is carrying:

1. _____ 2. _____

In which country was sushi developed? _____

In which country were Kelly's shoes made? _____

What is Kelly's nationality? _____

What do the initials FTA mean on Kelly's newspaper? _____

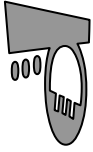

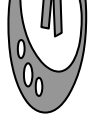

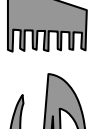

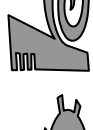

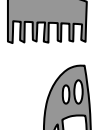

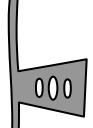

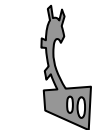

Are you a global citizen? Use Kelly as a model to draw a picture of yourself in the frame below, then write points in the boxes that show you are a global citizen.

Think about where your shoes were made, where you or your family have travelled or would like to go, the foods you eat, the languages you speak, whether you use the Internet and whether you know anyone who sells things to other countries.

For example, one of your points might be 'my favourite food is sushi' or 'my parents immigrated to Australia from Vietnam'.

I am a global citizen because...
