Pursuing ADB projects – a managing contractor’s perspective

Tim Kleinig – Business Development Coordinator
Established in 1991, we are a project management company which specialises in the management of international development, scholarship, and volunteer programs.

We have an extensive off-shore network across the Asia Pacific Region, an organisational presence in over 30 countries globally, and currently manage a significant portfolio of Australian Federal Government and other client funded programs.
Adelaide Based - Global Reach

EAST & SOUTHEAST ASIA
Cambodia, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Laos, Malaysia, Mongolia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam

SOUTH ASIA
Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, Sri Lanka

PACIFIC
Federal States of Micronesia, Fiji, Kiribati, Nauru, Palau, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Republic of the Marshall Islands (RMI), Tonga, Tuvalu, Vanuatu
The ADB from a contractor perspective

- Expand & diversify our client base and project portfolio
- ADB a good fit given our existing operations & capability
- We have relevant sectoral & geographical experience
- Shared Values
- The “D” in ADB!
Pursuing ADB work

- Competition is strong and margins might initially seem modest
- Learn about ADB and its projects, policies, guidelines
- Be patient - it’s a hard slog
- Find partners and people
- TA v LOAN/GRANT considerations
- Choose opportunities selectively
- Pay attention to detail
- Visit key stakeholders
Our ADB portfolio

Current:
- TA-8712 BHUTAN: Institutional Strengthening for Skills Development
- TA-8634 MYANMAR: Skills Development for Inclusive Growth
- TA-8984 PHILIPPINES: Nationwide Rollout of JobStart Philippines

Recently Completed:
- TA-7995 KIRIBATI: Strengthened Public Financial Management
- TA-8281 CAMBODIA: Strengthening TVET II, Cambodia
- TA-8335 PHILIPPINES: Employment Facilitation for Inclusive Growth
Summary

• Be patient and plan
• Research and find partners
• Don’t expect immediate success