

Working with ADB, World Bank, DFAT

www.watercentre.org

Mark Pascoe
CEO

Austrade – International Development
Opportunities 2018

Who is International WaterCentre

- Established in Brisbane in 2005
- Education, Capacity Development and Applied Research in water management
- Vision is to create our future water leaders
- Products
 - Masters in Integrated Water Management
 - Emerging Water Leader Program
 - Short Courses
 - On-line Courses
 - Applied Research

Kinds of International Projects

- 30 Australian Award Fellowships with Indonesia, Philippines, Nepal, Vietnam, Cambodia, Peru, Chile, Columbia, Fiji – DFAT
- 1000 Alumni from Masters and Short Courses – 80 countries
- Australia China Environment Development Partnership - $4m
- Delivered 3 Asian Development Bank Water Learning Weeks
- Involved in the development of 2013, 2016 and currently 2020 Asian Water Development Outlook - ADB
- Review of Australian Urban Water Reform Story for World Bank

Australian Water Partnership

- DFAT supported the development of a facility translate Australian expertise.
- I will talk more...

Projects

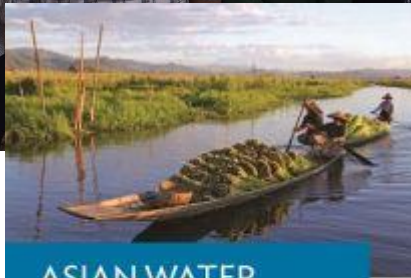

国际水资源中心 中澳生态与环境发展伙伴
中国河流健康与生态流量

River Health and Environmental Flow China – Project Overview 中国河流健康与生态用水项目概况

INTERNATIONAL WATERCENTRE

Masters Scholarships

ASIAN WATER DEVELOPMENT OUTLOOK 2016

SECURITY

WATER GLOBAL PRACTICE

Australian Urban Water Reform Story

with Detailed Case Study on New South Wales

Chris Salisbury, Brian W. Head, and Eric Grimm

INTERNATIONAL WATERCENTRE

ACEDF
River Health and Environmental Flow in China

H University THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

WORLD BANK GROUP

50th Anniversary ADB

www.watercentre.org

Austrade – International Development
Opportunities 2018

INTERNATIONAL
WATERCENTRE

The logo graphic for WaterCentre features a stylized blue wave at the bottom. To the right of the word 'WATERCENTRE' is a vertical red line.