Fine Food Australia – the ultimate food event

Fine Food is Australia's leading exhibition for the premium food and beverage trade.

At Fine Food Australia, you can discover the latest premium products and innovations from Australia's retail, hospitality and manufacturing sectors.

Last held in Sydney in 2019, this key event attracted over 1,000 exhibitors from 35 countries, and 24,000 visitors. Now, after two years of COVID disruptions, Fine Food Australia is back with a huge array of interactive sessions to showcase every aspect of the food and beverage industry.

Join us at this leading event

Austrade encourages international customers interested in Australia's diverse premium food and beverage offering to join us at Fine Food Australia.

If you are a retailer, importer or distributor seeking Australian food and beverages for retail, food service, ingredients, and e-commerce channels – this event is for you.

Participate in an exclusive program and unlock opportunities

As an international customer in our delegation, you will have the chance to participate in a program of tailored business matching and events to complement the exhibition (places are limited). Your participation will provide the opportunity to:

- Discover Australia's premium quality, nutritious, clean and sustainable produce
- Meet Australian suppliers in a tailored program to match your sourcing needs, either at the Fine Food Expo or across Australia at your discretion
- Access Austrade's VIP International Lounge
- Learn about the Australian market, latest trends and new suppliers
- Access key government and industry officials to support your engagement with the Australian food and beverage sector

Register your interest

To register your interest in being a part of Austrade's international customer delegation, please contact your local Austrade representative.
