SUPPORTING AUSTRALIAN BUSINESSES

- Working with other countries' governments to get their support for resisting the adoption of trade-related COVID-19 protectionist measures.
- Concerns regarding unjustified non-tariff barriers in other countries can be reported via: tradebarriers.gov.au.
- Working to keep international supply chains open.

SUPPORTING AUSTRALIAN BUSINESSES

- Regular contact with Australian peak industry bodies to share up-to-date COVID-19 information and obtain a better understand of the trade-related COVID-19 issues.
- DFAT has a dedicated group of people that are supporting businesses with COVID-19 issues that can be contacted using the following email address business@dfat.gov.au

SUPPORTING AUSTRALIAN BUSINESSES

Expanding and diversifying trade opportunities for Australian businesses. It is important to note that:

- Bilateral free trade agreements with Peru and Hong Kong entered into force earlier this year
- Our free trade agreement with Indonesia will enter into force on 5 July
